

From: adpro@vcn.com [<mailto:adpro@vcn.com>]
Sent: Friday, April 10, 2015 1:18 PM
To: Cheryl@westongov.com; blambert@westongov.com; rossman@westongov.com;
thunt@westongov.com; tbarton@westongov.com; we.wecaso@gmail.com
Subject: Fwd: Re: sending resumes of potential employees by email

----- Original Message -----

Subject: Re: sending resumes of potential employees by email
Date: 2015-04-10 12:43
From: Bill Miller <bmiller@lglp.net>
To: "adpro@vcn.com" <adpro@vcn.com>

Hello Marty,

I would agree with you. Have the clerk put a copy of each resume into a folder for each commissioner so that they are hand delivered to each person. That way there won't be any issues.

Have a great weekend.

Bill Miller

Sent from my iPad

> On Apr 10, 2015, at 12:32 PM, "adpro@vcn.com" <adpro@vcn.com> wrote:
>
> Hello Bill,
>
> Thank you so much for your visit last Tuesday. I hope your meeting > with our county attorney went well.
>
> We ran out of time but I did have one question I would like to have > your advice on:
>
> The board has requested our clerk to forward to each of us via email > copies of the resumes of potential employees for our review before we > have a meeting to discuss them. I was uncomfortable with her sending > such information out on a public website nor do I feel good about them > being sent via our personal email either. I voiced my concerns and the > board asked me to drop you a note. We certainly don't want to get > ourselves in (another) bind.
>
> Again,
>
> Thank you and I look forward to another visit!
>
> Marty Ertman
> Weston County Commissioner