Wyoming County Commissioners Association

We're Back!

Posted by Pete Obermueller, April 10, 2015 in WCCA News

Welcome to the new blog format of the WCCA newsletter. We've been undergoing rather drastic technological upgrades here at WCCA world headquarters, and this blog is another step toward our complete world dominance. Okay, so blogs are more than a decade old by now, but no one ever said county government was on the cutting edge of technology. I'm still proud of it. Regardless, this is the new way we will send out information to Commissioners, Business Partners, legislatures and other friends of the WCCA. Here's what you can expect as we roll this out:
