

RESOLUTION 2017- 10

WORDEN'S FUNERAL DIRECTORS FACILITY USAGE FEE

WHEREAS, occasionally the necessity for use of a morgue facility for storage OF HUMAN REMAINS by county, non-county individuals or entities occurs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the following fee schedule shall apply:

- A. For any usage by a County agency, organization, individual, business, or contractor which is not directly associated with the needs of a case under the jurisdiction of the Weston County Coroner, a fee of $85.00 per day will be assessed in each instance of use of a facility;
- B. For cases under the Coroner's jurisdiction, and where the facility has been contracted out for use, remains not removed once procedures are completed, an additional storage fee of $85.00 per day will be incurred;
- C. In cases which are under the Coroner's jurisdiction, any remains which are in storage after having been officially released by the Coroner for disposition at the direction of the next-of-kin, as established by Wyoming Statutes, may incur a storage fee of $85.00 per day if not removed after 48 hours. This fee may be waived in circumstances of family hardship, arrangements for home funeral and burial, or circumstances such as out-of-county transfer, at the discretion of the Coroner.

PASSED, APPROVED AND ADOPTED this 18th day of July, 2017.
