

A Proclamation Declaring May 2022 National Preservation Month

WHEREAS, Weston County joins cities and counties across the country in a nationwide celebration of Historic Preservation month; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the role of history in our lives, and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the heritage that has shaped us as people; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is an effective tool for managing growth, revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community character while enhancing livability; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for Americans of all ages, all walks of life and ethnic backgrounds; and

WHEREAS, historic preservation is inherently economically, environmentally, and socially friendly, and socially sustainable, fostering a culture of reuse and maximizing the life cycle of all resources through conservation; and

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Weston County Board of Commissioners, do proclaim May 2022 as National Preservation Month, and call upon the people of Weston County to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and celebrating in this special observance.

DATED this 3rd day of May, 2022 by the Board of County Commissioners in and for Weston County, Wyoming.
