S-A BUDGET MESSAGE W.S. 16-12-403 (c)

For the 2022-2023 fiscal year, our county funding is expected to be similar or slightly more funding compared to 2021-2022. Weston County Museum District continues to conserve cash to supplement future budgets while ensuring the well-being of the District and its assets. Our older buildings offer historical value but also require maintenance. As a district, we budget to have enough cash on hand for repairs and other maintenance issues. From this conservative approach, we have cash on hand for unforeseen emergencies and becoming more ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) handicap accessible. For example, this last year, we installed a chair lift at the Anna Miller Museum. We updated the stairs and stair landing to become compliant with building codes. The Emergency Relief line item is readily available if those unforeseen emergencies should occur or available as cash carry-over to supplement next year's budget. The district was able to maintain the Cash Reserve fund this past fiscal year, which allows us to operate during revenue gaps. This last year, the district did not receive the full mill as requested. Also, we were notified by the County Treasurer that because of new legislation, $4000 of our tax levy would be deferred. The District operates two museums with two full-time employees and one part-time employee. For 2022-2023, Weston County Museum District has increased the budget mainly because of inflation but also added in $60,000 for Real Property as we have an opportunity for expansion. Office equipment budget has been increased to $18,000. Other significant increases include advertising, operating supplies, program services, building and grounds maintenance/repair, and building insurance. Weston County Museum District formally requests one full mill funding, as even if it exceeds budgeted figures, any additional amounts will be carried forward and allocated to future expenditures; therefore allowing the District to offer its constituents a high level of service and quality museums, while remaining fiscally conservative.

S-B RESERVE DESCRIPTION

Weston County Museum District has a $20,000 Cash Reserve which allows the District to operate during revenue gaps.
