

National 4-H Week

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The Weston County Commissioners are proud to honor the 4-H Youth Development Program of the University of Wyoming Weston County Extension for its many years of providing experience-based education to youngsters throughout the County; and

WHEREAS, this admirable program, which seeks to provide a learning experience for the whole child, including head, heart, hands, and health, helps young Wyomingites to acquire knowledge, develop life skills, and form attitudes to enable them to become self-directed, productive, and contributing members of our society; and

WHEREAS, its more than 6 million urban, suburban, and rural youth participants, ranging in age from eight to nineteen, hail from diverse ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds and truly represent a cross-section of America; and

WHEREAS, the program undoubtedly could not have achieved the success that it has today were it not for the service of its more than 500,000 volunteers, who have given generously of their time, talents, energies, and resources to the youth of America; and

WHEREAS, throughout its proud history, the 4-H program has developed positive role models for countless Wyomingites and, through its innovative and inspiring programs, continues to build character and instill the values that have made our state strong and great; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, The Weston County Commissioners hereby designate October 1-7, 2023, as National 4-H Week in Weston County and commend the 4-H Youth Development Program of the University of Wyoming Weston County Extension Service and the many men and women who have made the program a success.
